

WHAT CAN A MINOR OR GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN GERONTOLOGY ADD TO YOUR COUNSELING DEGREE?

UNC Charlotte offers an Undergraduate Minor and Graduate Certificate in Gerontology (with an Early Entry option)

WHAT IS GERONTOLOGY?

Gerontology is the study of longevity. Students of gerontology study not only physiological changes that occur with aging, but also social roles, normative expectations, attitudes and beliefs, stereotypes, and policy, health and economic issues which define the aging experience.

HOW DOES GERONTOLOGY COMPLEMENT MY COUNSELING DEGREE?

The counseling specialization known as gerontological counseling will respond to the needs of the growing group of older adults. Therapeutic outcomes in mental health counseling have been shown to be effective with older adults and these outcomes are equal to those achieved with younger adults. There are specific challenges in working with older adults who are a very diverse population. These presenting issues may occur anytime, but they are more common in the older population chronic illness, disability, death of loved ones, and prolonged caregiving for family members who have severe cognitive or physical impairment. Effective gerontological counselors have expertise in aging issues, are informed about community resources that are available and are aware that the accumulated knowledge of people & relationships which older adults have amassed can be an asset.
